

ASLAN'S CHILD

Aslan's Child is a five-member dynamic worship team that seeks to bring people into the presence of God, sharing their gifts of music. They work towards presenting both new and well-known worship songs in a fresh and innovative way. This makes them an ideal choice when looking for a band to lead worship for youth or contemporary audiences.

This dynamic and youth-focused team can bring great energy to youth events, school chapels and church services. Above all, this team desires to honor God and use their skills to glorify Him.

Aslan's Child works to create a professional and God centered musical worship experience and are able to modify their presentation to fit with the needs of your event or service. They can come prepared to present a complete service or evening event, or they can also perform a selection of special numbers depending on what is needed.

Their program usually includes the following components that can be used to suit your event or service:

- ❖ Dynamic, contemporary praise and worship
- ❖ Personal life stories and testimonies from the team members, students at Providence University College & Seminary
- ❖ A devotional grounded in Scripture presented by a speaker from Providence University College's approved pulpit supply list (upon request)

All members of Providence touring ensembles are selected on the basis of their skills and talents, as well as their commitment to excellence in performing and service to others. Our performers provide a real-life example of the academic excellence and character development we strive for at Providence. We believe that our ensembles can and will have a significant impact on their audiences through the expression of their artistic talents and personal interaction with the public.

Some of our hosts choose to give us a financial gift in the form of an honorarium or free will offering. You are invited to do so but are not obligated to give financially. What we do request is an extension of hospitality on the day of the event. Due to scheduling, this may involve a meal or even over night accommodations.

What People are saying...

"The program was enjoyable and uplifting... They all seemed very excited about what they were doing, and it made the evening of worship that much more enjoyable." ~ Chrissy, Lansing Avenue Baptist Church
