

THE CHAMBER SINGERS

The Providence Chamber Singers is an 18-28 voice auditioned ensemble designed to offer high quality concerts. Under the direction of Dr. Henry Schellenberg, they have worked to develop both a cappella and accompanied repertoire of various styles, eras, and genres.

This ensemble demonstrates outstanding leadership in worship and ministry, providing music that will uplift, challenge and inspire their listeners, presenting the Christian message through song and word.

The Providence Chamber Singers work to provide a professional and moving presentation through a carefully chosen repertoire and are able to modify their presentation to fit the needs of your event or service, whether this means performing a selection of choral pieces or presenting a complete program for a service or event.

Their program usually includes the following components that can be used to suit your event or service:

- ❖ Performance of up to one hour of music selected from their repertoire
- ❖ Educational workshops led by Dr. Schellenberg on the components of choral performance (available to churches/schools upon request)
- ❖ A message grounded in Scripture presented by a speaker from Providence University College's approved pulpit supply list (upon request)

All members of Providence touring ensembles are selected on the basis of their skills and talents, as well as their commitment to excellence in performing and service to others. Our performers provide a real-life example of the academic excellence and character development we strive for at Providence. We believe that our ensembles can and will have a significant impact on their audiences through the expression of their artistic talents and personal interaction with the public.

Some of our hosts choose to give us a financial gift in the form of an honorarium or free will offering. You are invited to do so but are not obligated to give financially. What we do request is an extension of hospitality on the day of the event. Due to scheduling, this may involve a meal or even over night accommodations.

What People are saying...

"The performance was perfect! Perfect in every aspect. I believe it was more than suitable for any church. We were speechless during the service, yet we could not stop talking about how beautiful it was after. When you sing with passion for Christ, it can draw tears to one's eyes, and it did."
~ Maranatha Reformed Church, Wainfleet, Ontario
